EDITORIAL NOTES

(i) Classical Association : Annual General Meeting 1974

Unforeseen problems have caused the Association's Council to change the date of the Meeting, to be held in the University of Newcastle upon Tyne, from that published in Proceedings lxix (1972), 10: the new date is Monday 8th to Thursday 11th April.

(ii) British Academy : Lexicon of Greek Personal Names

The British Academy has appointed a committee under the Chairmanship of Mr. P. M. Fraser, of All Souls College, to undertake the preparation of a new Lexicon of Greek Personal Names, the purpose of which is to combine in one work the personal names occurring in literary texts, inscriptions, and papyri, on coins and on archaeological objects (vases, lamps, etc.) of all periods from the earliest known Greek texts to the Byzantine age. The work was begun with a small team of research-assistants in October 1972, and it is hoped by this announcement to secure the goodwill and (still better) the collaboration of interested scholars outside Great Britain. It would be very much appreciated, in particular, if scholars engaged in individual studies relevant to this work, such as the compilation of local prosopographies etc., would let this be known to the co-ordinator of the project, Dr. J. K. Davies, Oriel College, Oxford, so that future work on the lexicon may be planned with the publication of such material in mind.

(iii) Thesaurus Linguae Graecae

A research organization established at the University of California, Irvine, under the directorship of Professor Theodore F. Brunner began to establish a framework for a Thesaurus Linguae Graecae in the autumn of 1972. Ultimately, the project will enlist the co-operation of scholars on a national and international scale and will involve the collection and processing of textual and documentary materials by computer technology. A periodic Newsletter is being issued: a special edition of June, 1973, lists the canon of authors and titles which is to be the basis of the proposed lexicon. The co-operation of scholars in all parts of the world is invited: the address of the project is Thesaurus Linguae Graecae, University of California, Irvine, California 92664, U.S.A.
